

VISITING to be returned signed

In order to visit Villa Albani Torlonia each person is first required to fill in the following form and sending it back, signed, by email info@villaalbanitorlonia.org

The visits are organized in compliance with the current containment measures for the SARS- CoV-2 virus. As a preventative measure temperature screening will be conducted at the entrance. Visitors with a fever (37.5°C or more) are restricted from access. Each visitor will be asked to fill in and sign a self-declaration, to maintain the safety distances of 1.80 m, to wear a mask during the entire duration of the visit and to wash the hands with the hydro-alcoholic solutions that the Foundation makes available.

The visits are free. Contribution to support the Foundation's projects and activities are welcome with a recommended minimum contribution of €50 per person. Whenever possible, visitors may see the object of restorations they have contributed to.

Visits, which last two hours, are guided by an art historian. They include the Casino Nobile and its collections, the Italian garden and the Kaffehaus, now featuring the recently restored sculptures.

The Fondazione Torlonia, should the request be accepted, will propose the first available date. Given the high numbers of requests, the institutional commitments of the Foundation, and to support the Foundation's mission, any contribution will be a preferential title for the assignment of the available dates. The visits take place walking on different types of grounds, does not contemplate stops and to reach the second floor there are 64 steps. In case of mobility problems, please inform us in writing well in advance in order to provide the best possible support.
